

The Ekklesia of Christ's Kingdom will now elevate in greater levels of the Dominion Mandate.

Increased and bold authority will now be seen.

As King Jesus and Holy Spirit reveal more of who they really are and reveal the victorious strategy of the Godhead.

They did not come to earth to lose to hell!

They did not leave heaven to be beaten by a fallen reprobate cherub.

They did not come to surrender their Kingdom to the government of man.

They did not come to take orders from feckless kings, governors, potentates, presidents, congress men or women, senators, prime ministers, tribal chiefs, mayors, city councils, school boards, tenured professors, political parties...

They didn't come to start a weak, pitiful church scared of devil activity!

They came to win. They came to strip hell of its power.

They came to destroy the works of the devil.

They came to activate and oversee Angel Armies to assist a glorious church - not a whimpering church begging to survive. Not a scared, intimidated, bullied church. Not a church shaken by demon propaganda. Not a church shook by insulting government tyranny. Not a church bound by lying hypocrites.

Rather - a bold Ekklesia, a fierce and determined remnant, raising their voice with passion.

A church that answers the challenge of demons without fear.

A New Testament church that will not bow their knee to anyone but Jesus!

The Lord says to His Ekklesia, stop looking at your options...

I am your option! Not gonna be... Not was... Am!

I am your map. I am your guide. I am the plan.

I have plans you have not seen but soon shall see.

I have moves you have not seen but soon will see.

For you will soon see the surprise of the King's gambit.

Yes, hell will hear CHECKMATE.

I'm hearing power explosions of dunamis - scattering and shattering hell's strongholds.

I'm hearing the sound of revival... awakening... transformation.

I'm hearing the sounds of radical change.

I'm hearing a deep throated roar from our lion King.

Roaring...this is my territory. This is my pride. This is my nation. This is my world.

America is my nation!

I birthed it. I made covenant with it. I will not lose it.

I am move - after move - after move - after move... ahead of the Forever Loser.

Holy Spirit says to the true Ekklesia... Hear the verdict of the King of Glory.

Hear a resounding decree that will go through the nations.

Hear a shout decree from His throne against cultural evils.

Hear a battle cry against government structures of darkness.

A voice of triumph against swamp creatures in diabolical orders.

Swamp rats that have nested to spread their sin virus.

Swamp vultures that screech in the night — anticipating the kill.

Swamp giants that have occupied My land of promise.

Swamp tyrants whose mouths are open sepulchers.

Arrogant small ones of the walking dead.

The over confident Sanballats and Geshems that have laid siege against My heirs.

I have read your letters and was not impressed.

Hear the words of the Supreme Commander unveiling the plans.

Hear the voice of His power. Hear the aggression of His gambit.

Surprise - Surprise - Surprise

Suddenly - Suddenly - Suddenly

Breakthrough - Breakthrough - Breakthrough

Victory - Victory - Victory

Hear the roar of heaven onto earth activating the fear of the Lord

I will roar over this nation in triumphant challenge.

I said My church will prevail not fail.

I said they will reign with Me not run from devils.

I said they would be strong and courageous not trembling, passive deserters.

I have put steel in the backbone of My remnant.

The eye of the tiger will be in their eyes.

I have fashioned a heart like Joshua, Caleb, and David inside them.

They are hearing the stirring call of My voice.

They are riding Holy Spirit's winds of change.

They do not fear giants in the land — they hunt them!

They are giant hunters. They charge giants. They take them down.

Giant hunters are engaging.

Surprise - Surprise - Surprise

Cultural giants will fall!

Media giants will fall!

Government giants will fall!

Tech giants will fall!

Education giants will fall!

Religious giants will fall!

Giants hidden by gross darkness will not hinder My warriors.

I will give them night vision. They will be nocturnal warriors owning the nights.

Intimidating my enemies. Infiltrating demon territory.

Engaging with weapons of warfare that are empowered to tear down strongholds.

It will be said — the night hides the surprise of their God.

It hides His suddenlies. It hides His breakthroughs. It hides His victory plans.

I own the night says the Lord.

I own the darkness.

I own My enemies.

I own the battlefields.

My heirs will live in My victory.

The raiding will cease. The spoils of war will come into your hands.

The supplies and treasure will transfer.

The Lord says I have set the board for My next move.

The blitz push of My Kingdom's Ekklesia...

Push into times of great revival.

Push into victory after victory.

Push into supernatural harvests.

Push forward and see battles shift to great triumph.

Push forward into the Land of your inheritance...

And you will see the surprise gambit of your King.

You will hear the joyful decree from heaven... CHECKMATE!
